Broughton Primary School

Newsletter

Dear Parents,

The Easter Holidays are now upon us, and I hope that everyone enjoys the break. The weather forecast is set fair (well, for the first week anyway!) and I am sure that you are all ready for a rest.

We would ask that, if possible, you try to keep regular routines of reading, times tables and maths work going through the holidays. It helps to keep the children's skills ticking over, and really assists them to return to school, ready to start their learning again.

Apart from that, let's hope for plenty of time in the fresh air, with family and friends and of course more than a hint of chocolate!

School Reports

We hope that you enjoyed reading about your child's progress and achievement at school. Please do send in feedback forms with any comments or follow up.

Easter Egg Hunt and Egg Rolling

These tremendous events always bring such joy to us all in school. Hunting in our wonderful grounds for a paper egg with the children's names on and swapping it for a chocolate one, never fails to delight the children. Thank you to FOBS for organising the purchase of the eggs.

Egg rolling is a brilliant sport, and is part of the fabric that is Broughton School. Come rain or shine, we gather as a school on the acre and participate in the challenge of rolling a hard boiled egg as far as we can, without it being thrown! The winner receives the huge trophy, which takes pride of place in their classroom for the year. It is a prestigious prize for a highlight of the school calendar.

Jumble Sale

Thank you to everyone who helped with or donated to the jumble sale. It was a very successful event raising a great deal of money for both Broughton and Danebury School.

Entry for the Cluster Oratory Competition

Mr Smith and I heard all the semi-finalists this week and it was very hard to decide the winners from some very strong fields. The children have been informed if they will go through to the finals of the competition which will be held at Lockerley School.

We would like to congratulate everyone who has taken the time to complete an entry and been brave enough to put themselves forward. Well done.

Thank you for your continued support.

Wishing everyone a lovely weekend!

Best wishes
